

Tournament Cancellation and Refund Policy

Updated: June 6, 2024

1. General Rules

- a. The Clubs Poker Tournament cancellation and refund policy (“Policy”) is to be read in tandem with the Clubs Poker Terms of Use and Card Room Rules
- b. In the event of any inconsistency between this Policy and the Clubs Poker Terms of Use, the Card Room Rules or any other applicable rules provided by Clubs Poker, the inconsistency will be resolved by giving precedence in the following order: the Clubs Poker Terms of Use; the Card Room Rules; this Policy; any other applicable rules provided by Clubs Poker.
- c. This Policy applies to both Gold Coin and Sweeps Coin tournaments.
- d. If a tournament is canceled after it has begun, then finishing position and prize awards in that tournament will be determined by chip stack at the time of cancellation.
 - i. The player with the largest chip stack at time of cancellation will be assigned the first place finishing position and receive the first place prize.
 - ii. The player with the second largest chip stack will be assigned the second place finishing position and will receive the second place prize.
 - iii. This process of assigning finishing positions according to chip stack at the time of cancellation will continue until all remaining prizes (as established at the end of the tournament’s registration period) are awarded.
- e. If a tournament with a guaranteed prize is canceled after the tournament commences, the player-contributed Prize Pool, and not the guaranteed amount, will be allocated between all remaining players in accordance with section 1.d.
- f. If a Bounty / Knockout Tournament is canceled after it has commenced:
 - i. The remaining prize pool will be awarded in accordance with section 1.d. Additionally, players still active in the tournament at the time of cancellation will also
 1. Receive any Bounties won by that remaining player in that tournament;
 2. Have their own Bounty for that tournament returned to them.
- g. Under no circumstances is an eliminated player entitled to any refund.
